

Terms and Conditions

All participants are subject to the terms and conditions set out below, and other such rules that Church Team Ministries International (CTMI) may see fit to establish.

A. REGISTRATION

1. The online registration form must be filled in by a parent if the participant is under 18 or by the participant above 18 by the 17th of December 2025.
2. A photo of the Parental Consent Form for Under 18's completed by one of the participant's parents, should be sent via WhatsApp to your regional youth coordinator.
3. CTMI's Youth Camp is open to anyone born in, or between 2000 and 2010, and in good physical and mental health. CTMI reserves the right to accept a participant outside of the age range mentioned above.
4. For the Adults you need to sign the terms and condition form and send it to your Regional coordinator.
5. Submission of a registration form and payment (partial or full) does not mean that the application has been approved. CTMI reserves the right to refuse an application, without any given reason. In the event that an application is rejected, you will be notified in writing and CTMI will reimburse you for the amount you have paid. If you do not receive a negative response from CTMI by 20 December 2025, you may consider your child's application approved.
6. The discovery of a new and undisclosed fact in the participant's file will be considered a violation of the conditions of registration and may be sanctioned by a rejection of the participant's application.
